WELCOME TO THE 2011 WHITE ROSE TRIAL

Congratulations!

Sorry, there are no prizes, but by reading this you are now part of trialling folklore. This year's event, now known as The White Rose, celebrates a milestone in it's history. It was thought up by two club members, growing tired of short trials, and dreaming of a 'decent do' in Gods country, they created one. Two years planning, ferreting about and haggling with officialdom produced the first in 1961. Yes, 2011 means the White Rose in now 50 years old. Be you rider, official, farmer, relation or spectator; just remember it as a 'bloody good do'.

TRIAL HISTORY

- Back in 1958 Reg Roberts a West Leeds member became disillusioned with riding small course events and dreamed of running a one lap long distance trial.
- After over two years of planning, obtaining permissions, plotting sections etc the first event in 1961 known then as the Dancaaster Trial was run as a West Yorkshire Group trial.
- Having run two years successfully the event was upgraded to a Yorkshire Centre trial for the next ten events.
- The club was keen to run the event as a national trial, but before that could take place the event had to run as a Regional Restricted for 3 years.
- These 3 events were vetted by an ACU steward from each of the three invited Centres, who confirmed that the event was of a good enough standard to be run as a national, and so the White Rose was born.
- Awarded a National status in 1976.
